Suggested campus tour path

On your self-guided tour, you can omit stops that you do not wish to visit and go to the next location.

Walking: From Yonge Street, head north and turn right onto Gould Street.

1

Sheldon and Tracy Levy Student Learning Centre (SLC)
341 Yonge Street, Toronto, ON M5B 1S1

Connected to the Library Building, the SLC is a building dedicated to students. It is home to Student Learning Support and Academic Accommodation. The School of Performance and their state-of-the-art performance studios are also located on the lower level.

Walking: Continue east along Gould Street toward Church Street, pausing at the intersection of Gould Street and Victoria Street.

2

a) Library (LIB)
350 Victoria Street, Toronto, ON M5B 0A1

The University Library provides academic supports and bookable study spaces, including computer stations, experiential learning labs and digital and print collections.

b) Podium (POD)
350 Victoria Street, Toronto, ON M5B 0A1

Located here is the ServiceHub, a one-stop location for prospective students, current students and alumni to get information on financial assistance, enrolment services and fees, as well as undergraduate admissions and recruitment. The student support services located here include the Tri-Mentoring Program, Aboriginal Student Services, International Student Services and the Career and Co-op Centre.

Walking: Continue east on Gould Street toward Church Street.

3

Kerr Hall South (KHS)
40 Gould Street, Toronto, Ontario M5B 1E9

This building is home to the School of Fashion's state-of-the-art labs and studios, as well as the Chemical Engineering offices. Starting at the Rogers Communication Centre, extending through Kerr Hall South and ending at the Student Learning Centre, there is an above ground connection tunnel that spans over four city blocks — a perfect way to navigate through campus during the colder winter months.

Walking: Continue walking east on Gould Street toward Church Street. Cross at the intersection to the north-east corner of Church Street and Gould Street.

Rogers Communication Centre (RCC)
80 Gould Street, Toronto, ON M5B 2M7

This building is home to The Creative School, an impactful education hub and innovation ecosystem at the heart of Canada's media, design and creative industries. This is where you'll find many of Canada's top schools and programs in their field, many of which are recognized as leading programs around the world. It has four television studios.

Walking: Continue walking east along Gould Street toward Mutual Street.

International Living/Learning Centre (ILC)

40 Jarvis Street, Toronto, ON M5B 2L1

5

The ILC is an 11-storey, former Ibis hotel that was built in 1987. It can accommodate 256 residence students in its extra-large rooms, and also features a community kitchenette on each floor, a common lounge with cable TV and laundry facilities. There is also a cafeteria and lounge space on the main floor of the building.

Walking: Head north on the west side of Mutual Street, toward Gerrard Street. Take the path between RCC and PIT, and you will arrive at Pitman Quad — an outdoor court gathering space.

Pitman Hall (PIT)

160 Mutual Street, Toronto, ON M5B 2M2

6

This residence was built in 1991 and has 14 floors and 565 rooms. Pitman Hall features a community kitchenette on each floor, a common lounge with cable TV and laundry facilities. The main floor houses a cafeteria and the Housing & Residence Life offices. The second floor has community lounges for larger events. Outside of Pitman Hall is the Pitman Quad, which is a green space for students to connect and gather for events.

Walking: Continue walking west through Pitman Quad turning north toward the stairway path. To avoid stairs, continue to walk west to Church Street and turn north to navigate to the next stop.

Architecture Building (ARC)

325 Church Street, Toronto, ON M5B 2M2

7

This building was built in 1981 and designed by Ron Thom, one of Canada's best-known architects who also designed the Shaw Festival Theatre and the Toronto Zoo. Home to the Department of Architectural Science, this building contains drafting studios, workshops, a gallery and labs, and is host to symposia, exhibitions, guest lectures and other events throughout the year.

Walking: Continue north through the path toward Gerrard Street.

a) Eric Palin Hall (EPH)

87 Gerrard Street East, Toronto, ON M5B 2M2

This building includes seven state-of-the-art electronic classrooms, a computer lab and a video conferencing classroom. Home to the School of Social Work office and classroom spaces, as well as Industrial Engineering and Mechanical Engineering offices, labs and classrooms spaces.

8

b) Sally Horsfall Eaton Centre for Studies in Community Health (SHE)

99 Gerrard Street East, Toronto, ON M5B 2M2

In 2002, two floors were added to Eric Palin Hall to house the Sally Horsfall Eaton Centre for Studies in Community Health. It is home to the School of Social Work, School of Child and Youth Care, the School of Disability Studies and Urban Health (PhD).

Walking: Head west toward Church Street and cross at the intersection to the west side. Cross at the lights again to head north on Church Street to continue toward Carlton Street. Cross the intersection at Carlton Street to head north, and then head west along Carlton Street to arrive at the Mattamy Athletic Centre (next to Loblaws).

Mattamy Athletic Centre (MAC)
50 Carlton Street, Toronto, ON M5B 1J2

9

This iconic landmark, the former Maple Leaf Gardens, is now our university's Mattamy Athletic Centre. It houses a world-class fitness and recreation facility, where you can take advantage of the high-performance gym and community wellness spaces. Support our nationally ranked teams in basketball, volleyball and hockey, who all play here. During the final exam period many students will write exams on the Coca-Cola Court, as well as on our home ice rink (without the ice). The ice rink is also used as a large event space that hosts important ceremonies such as convocation, student-run initiatives including The School of Fashion's Mass Exodus year end fashion show and community events with incredible speakers such as Chris Hadfield and Michelle Obama.

Walking: Head south along Church Street toward Gerrard Street, turn right onto Gerrard Street and continue west.

Centre for Urban Innovation (CUI)
44 Gerrard Street East, Toronto, ON M5B 1G3

10

The CUI is a state-of-the-art research, incubation and commercialization hub focused on finding solutions to urban infrastructure issues to define cities of the next century. This collaborative research space is 65,000 square feet in the centre of the city and utilizes our industry connections for research and innovation in areas such as alternative energy, water management, food production, artificial intelligence, data analytics, transportation and smart urban infrastructure.

Walking: Head east back to the intersection of Church Street and Gerrard Street, cross south at the intersection and turn right to approach Kerr Hall North and continue west. Turn left to enter the open gates to continue into the Quad.

Kerr Hall East (KHE), Kerr Hall North (KHN) and Kerr Hall West (KHW)
43 Gerrard Street East, Toronto, Ontario M5G 2A7

11

East: Kerr Hall East is home to the Faculty of Science's programs including Medical Physics (undergraduate), and Biomedical Physics, CAMPEP Medical Physics and Complex Systems (graduate). Many physics labs where students participate in research can be found here.

North: Kerr Hall North is home to The Theatre at The Creative School, a multifunctional venue that can accommodate 1,237 audience members. One of the largest theatres in Toronto, it hosts Toronto International Film Festival screenings. This wing of Kerr Hall is also home to the Faculty of Science offices.

West: Inside Kerr Hall West are two of our university gym spaces where students can participate in intramural sports. Outside the doors of Kerr Hall West, you can see the Early Learning Centre playground. Early Childhood Studies students can have their field placement experience working with children ages 18-months to four-years-old here.

Walking: Head south along the Quad path toward Kerr Hall South and exit to Gould Street. Continue east along Gould Street toward Church Street. Cross to the south-east corner of Church Street at the intersection.

George Vari Engineering and Computing Centre (ENG)
245 Church Street, Toronto, Ontario M5B 1Z4

12

The ENG building is a $70-million facility that is home to the Faculty of Engineering and Architectural Science's Aerospace, Biomedical, Computer and Electrical Engineering programs, our Faculty of Science's Computer Science labs and general lecture halls. On the roof, there is the award-winning Andrew and Valerie Pringle Environmental Green Roof. The Urban Farm grows plants and vegetables here, as well as in several additional gardens across campus.

Walking: Cross intersection heading west on Gould Street and turn left (south) on Church Street.

Daphne Cockwell Health Sciences Complex (DCC)

288 Church Street, Toronto, ON M5B 1Z5

13

The first eight floors are classes and labs for Nursing, Occupational and Public Health, Nutrition and Food and Midwifery. Beyond the eight floors is an 18-floor residential tower, providing on-campus accommodation for students in either two-bedroom or four-bedroom apartments.

Walking: Head north on Church Street.

School of Interior Design (SID)

302 Church Street, Toronto, ON M5B 1E9

14

Our Interior Design program is top-ranked in the world, and calls this building home. Here you'll find three floors of dedicated studio and maker spaces equipped with technology that allows for the development and testing of ideas.

Walking: Head north on Church Street.

Campus Pub (OAK)

63 Gould Street, Toronto, ON M5B 1E9

15

Our all-ages campus pub is a space for students to connect with the community, relax, play pool or get on the dance floor. This dynamic space can host social events like viewing parties for Raptors and Blue Jays playoff games, dances or even board game nights.

Walking: Continue north on Church Street toward Gould Street, turn left on Gould Street, remain on the south Gould Street and continue west.

a) Oakham House (OAK)

55 Gould Street, Toronto, ON M5B 1E9

This building is home to Oakham Cafe, an on-campus gem. It offers a calm environment, views of student artwork on display and laid-back music. All menu items are selected and priced with a student's budget in mind.

16

b) Student Campus Centre (SCC)

55 Gould Street, Toronto, ON M5B 1E9

Our Student Union and Equity Service Centre are located in this building for students to get involved with initiatives like the Racialized Students Collective, The Good Food Centre, the Centre for Women and Trans People and more.

Walking: Continue west on Gould Street toward Bond Street, turn left on Bond Street, continue walking south.

South Bond Building (SBB)

105 Bond Street, Toronto, ON M5B 1Y3
